About ICOR

The ICOR was founded as an initiative for uniting the revolutionaries of the world on 6 October 2010. Today it comprises 49 revolutionary parties and organizations from 4 continents.

In view of the deep crises of imperialism and the foundations of life of humankind being threatened by environmental destruction the time for taking this step had come. The wave of democratic people's uprisings in North Africa and the Arab countries, the rebellious mass movements on the squares of the Mediterranean capitals, the large workers' strikes and people's movements in Africa and Asia, the anti-imperialist struggles in Latin America, the worldwide upturn in the rebellion of the youth and the growing independent environmental movement require such an organized union. Only thus can they achieve the necessary maturity and strength, which they need for the victory over the capitalist system of exploitation and oppression.

The ICOR is a union for practical cooperation and a form of organization of international cooperation and coordination for the activity of the revolutionaries of the world, and for mutual support in class struggle and party-building. It unites parties and organizations on an equal footing, which are very different in terms of size, practical, organizational and political experience, historical-ideological roots, strategic task and socio-economic conditions. The Founding Resolution includes a revolutionary, anti-imperialist, anti-revisionist and anti-Trotskyite platform, which forms a basis for achieving unity in all essential questions by an interrelated process of theoretical discussion and practical work. A World Conference of representatives of all ICOR member parties and organizations takes place every three years as supreme decision-making body. The joint implementation of international days of struggle is a training ground for practical cooperation.

The ICOR calls on all class-conscious workers, the oppressed peoples, the militant women, the rebellious youth and the broad masses to make the building and strengthening of ICOR their cause.

Workers of all countries, unite!

Workers of all countries and oppressed peoples, unite!
